SKILLS ACROSS THE BUSINESS CURRICULUM

---

The Okanagan School of Business promotes core skills across the curriculum. These skills include reading, written and oral communications, computers, small business, and academic standards of ethics, honesty and integrity.

STUDENT CONDUCT AND ACADEMIC HONESTY

What is the Disruption of Instructional Activities?

Disruption of instructional activities includes any action that interferes with the learning process, including but not limited to: examinations, lectures, seminars, tutorials, group meetings, other related activities, and with students using the study materials. Sanctions for disruption of instructional activities include a range of sanctions from a warning and/or a failing grade on an assignment, examination or course to suspension from OC.

What is Cheating?

Cheating is the use of unauthorized aids during an examination. This includes the use of books, notes, diagrams or other aids excluding those authorized by the examiner. It includes communicating with others for the purpose of obtaining information, copying from the work of others and purposely exposing or conveying information to others.

Students must submit independently written work. Students may not write joint or collaborative assignments with other students unless the instructor approves it in advance as a group/team project. Students who share their work with other students are equally involved in cheating.

What is Plagiarism?

Plagiarism is the use of someone else's work or ideas without their permission and without giving them credit. This includes copying text, images, audio, video, or any other material from a journal article, a book chapter, data from the Internet, another student, work submitted for credit in another course or from other sources.

Plagiarism can be intentional or unintentional. Unintentional plagiarism is a failure of scholarship; intentional plagiarism is an act of dishonesty.
