Notes

Students must earn at least 60% of the total exam marks to pass the course.

Work that is submitted late may be rejected or subject to loss of marks at the discretion of the professor. However, after 5 days (including weekends and holidays), no work will be accepted for grading. All materials submitted for grading must be professionally presented and WILL be marked for spelling and grammar as well as content.

There is a direct correlation between attendance in class and a good academic grade. It is highly recommended that students read text materials before classes. Any work missed as a result of failure to attend class is the responsibility of the student.

Term Work

The term work grade will be based the individual professor's decisions. It may include (but not be limited to) quizzes, presentations, class participation, in-class work, discussion forums, and individual assignments.

Term Projects

The projects include a written assignment and a simulation of marketing for a video game company. It is worth a total of 25% of your course grade. Details will be provided by your professor.

Exam Marks

The exams can take different forms, but they will be focussed on evaluating the learning outcomes. In-class examinations will be scheduled throughout the semester and are worth 50% of the grade. Students must earn at least 60% of the total exam marks to be eligible to pass the course.
